The Court in its Order Granting In Part and Denying in Part Defendants' Motion for Summary Judgment scheduled this case for a status conference and trial setting on Monday July 17, 2006. The parties, acting by and through their attorneys, stipulate and respectfully request that the status conference be continued to Monday August 7, 2006. Good cause exists for this continuance in that defense counsel Gregory Fox will be out of the country with his family between Friday July 7 through July 21 and plaintiff's counsel Russell Robinson will be unavailable the last two weeks of July.

The parties have met and conferred and agree that Monday November 7, 2006 would be a mutually convenient trial date if that date is convenient for the Court. The parties estimate the trial length to be 2-3 days.

With regards to remaining discovery the parties agree that plaintiff may take the deposition of defendants police practices expert Don Cameron at a mutually convenient date and time before trial.

Plaintiff has requested a further settlement conference and defendants will discuss said request and be prepared to address that issue at the status conference.

DATED: July 6, 2006

Respectfully submitted:
